PARLANDO SCHOOL OF MUSICAL ARTS:
Honk! JR.
AUGUST 3 - 4
Join Parlando for this heartwarming celebration of being different: Ugly looks quite a bit different from his darling duckling brothers and sisters. The other animals on the farm are quick to notice and point this out, despite his mother’s protective flapping. Feeling rather foul about himself, the little fowl finds himself on an adventure of self-discovery, all the while unknowingly outwitting a very hungry Cat. Along the way, Ugly meets a whole flock of unique characters and finds out being different is not a bad thing to be.

RELEASE CONCERT/CELEBRATION
Mark Oblinger
HIGH WATER LINE Album
AUGUST 9, 7:30PM
After years of dancing on the edge of the spotlight, Grammy nominee Mark Oblinger’s new release, “High Water Line” leaves no doubt that he’s ready to take center stage. From high-energy anthems to deeply introspective ballads, Mark’s songs are a soulful, eclectic blend of diverse musical textures. Mark’s lyrics paint vivid pictures of both personal loss and rebirth - and the courage to stand one’s ground when left without easy choices.

Mark’s national performing roots include stints with chart topping country rock stalwarts Pure Prairie League and Firefall. From there, Mark’s had the good fortune to work with Rock and Roll Hall of Famer Richie Furay (Buffalo Springfield, Poco) Garth Brooks, Amy Grant, John Oates, Jeff Hanna (Dirt Band) and more.

DAIRY ARTS CENTER:
Noche de Peña
AUGUST 10, 7:00PM
A peña is a casual and participatory social event centered around live music that celebrates community through music, poetry, prose, and culture. Peñas have a rich and varied history, and can be quite different from one country to another.

Many countries, such as Guatemala, El Salvador, Brazil, Bolivia, Uruguay, and Paraguay have also celebrated peñas clandestinely to protest torture and repression by the military government in charge. The songs found at peñas give voice to social and political issues and the human condition. They provide social commentary and critique, addressing issues of poverty, anti-imperialism and a Latin American identity that reclaims its Indigenous and African roots. As in the words of Chilean-American author Isabel Allende, “Roots are not in landscape or a country, or a people, they are inside you.” Please join us and share in what is inside us all.

HAZEL MILLER SHINES A LIGHT ON NEW TALENT: Soda Blue and Twenty Hands High
AUGUST 25, 7:00PM
Since moving to Colorado 3 decades ago, Hazel Miller has been one of the most sought-after performers and a driving force in the music scene. With this new series of shows at the Dairy, she hopes to shine a light on lesser-known performers who deserve more attention. She’ll host the show and perhaps sing a song or two with her guests.
Twenty Hands High is a Denver based country & Southern rock band. Performing modern & classic country, as well as your favorite Southern rock and Texas/Oklahoma red dirt tunes, they have a knack for engaging the audience, and inviting them to be part of the show. Their smiling faces and stage energy prove they’re doing what they love! Grab your friends and your boots… it’s time to cut loose!
Opening the show will be Soda Blue, a dynamic duet comprised of the partners Alice Frisch and David Fermanich. Friends for over 30 years, Alice and Dave share a chemistry that really comes across on stage. Technically a ‘cover’ musical act with a focus on your favorite pop, jazz, and smokey R&B tunes from the 50s through the 70s, their joking and overall sense of fun turns their show into something more than just music.
